

Writing a Problem

- Problem construction involves four major steps:
- 1. Planning the Problem: Learning Issues – Objectives
 - 2. Constructing the Problem: Scenario, stimulus
 - 3. Formatting the Problem: Language
 - 4. Preparing for Use of the Problem: Material preparation & References

Writing a Problem

Problem construction involves four major steps:

- 1. Planning the Problem: Learning Goals - Classroom
- 2. Constructing the Problem: Scenario, stimulus
- 3. Formulating the Problem: Language
- 4. Preparing for Use of the Problem: Material preparation & References

